Total returns are calculated using the sell (exit) price, net of management fees and gross of tax as if distributions of income have been reinvested at the actual distribution reinvestment price. The actual returns received by an investor will depend on the timing, buy and exit prices of individual transactions. Return of capital and the performance of your investment in the fund are not guaranteed. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Figures showing a period of less than one year have not been adjusted to show an annual total return. Figures for periods of greater than one year are on a per annum compound basis. The current benchmark may not have been the benchmark over all periods shown in the above chart and tables. The calculation of the benchmark performance links the performance of previous benchmarks and the current benchmark over the relevant time periods.

Commentary

Equity markets continued to rise over the quarter, with the MSCI World index returning 9.8% (as measured in local currency). Markets were buoyed by an anticipated start to a rate cutting cycle, in particular by the Fed, with a series of rate cuts priced in for 2024. The Australian 10-year Government bond fell 53bps over the quarter to 3.96%, while the US 10-year fell 69bps to 3.88%. So far, a soft landing, while historically unlikely, remains a possibility, with inflation in much of the developed world approaching their target ranges, while employment has remained resilient. The rate sensitive information technology sector led equity markets, appreciating 11.0% over the quarter to finish up 55.9% for the full year. The Balanced Fund (Wholesale) returned 4.2% over the quarter against its SAA weighted benchmark return of 5.2%. Both the domestic and global equities portfolio drove the absolute performance, with our domestic equities portfolio rising 5.3%, and international equities portfolio 6.6%. From a relative performance perspective our domestic equities portfolio was the main detractor, underperforming its S&P ASX 300 benchmark which returned 8.4%, driven by our underweight to the materials sector. The fixed income portfolios performed well over the quarter, with the domestic fixed income portfolio returning 3.8%, in-line with its benchmark, and the international fixed income portfolio returning 6.0%, outperforming its benchmark by 55bps.
